Introducing our Bishops-Elect in our March 10, 2022 Issue

Pope Francis has appointed two current pastors, Father John Bonnici and Father Joseph Espailat, to serve as auxiliary bishops for the Archdiocese of New York. Cardinal Dolan, thanking the Holy Father for the appointments, said, “Pope Francis has selected two outstanding priests, both experienced pastors, to serve the people of God of this archdiocese as auxiliary bishops.” Their ordination to the episcopacy will take place at a Mass in St. Patrick’s Cathedral Tuesday, March 1, at 2 p.m.

Catholic New York’s March 10th issue will introduce Bishop-Elect Bonnici and Bishop-Elect Espailat to the entire Archdiocese of New York. There will be interviews, stories and photos about their roots in New York and their years of priestly service.

This issue will also include full coverage of the Auxiliary Bishops’ ordination Mass.

If you would like to order extra bundle copies of the March 10th issue for your parish please let us know the number of papers you would like by Thursday, March 3rd.
