1011 First Avenue, New York, NY 10022 (Tel) 646-794-3200

Petitioner Information Form

Dear Petitioner,

As you begin preparing the Petitioner Information Form, would like to remind you that the purpose of this application is formally to request that the Metropolitan Tribunal initiate an investigation to clarify whether or not you are bound by a previous marriage according to the teaching and law of the Roman Catholic Church. This form and the other required documents (see Checklist) will begin a formal canonical process to resolve the question concerning this marriage. The enclosed Petition, together with the required documents and your sworn testimony, as well as that of your former spouse and witnesses, will provide the basis by which the Tribunal Judges make a decision.

This Information Form is divided into four sections:

- The first section asks basic information regarding you (the Petitioner), about your former spouse (the Respondent), and your courtship and marriage.
- The second section is to be completed only if you cannot locate your former spouse after trying the sources and avenues available to you.
- The third section contains a series of questions that will help the Tribunal understand the circumstances related to your marriage. This section also contains information, that will help you propose the reason or basis for the Tribunal to examine the validity of your marriage to the Respondent. Lastly, this section contains the Petition itself. The official document required to open the investigation for a possible declaration of invalidity.
- The final section asks for the names and complete addresses of witnesses who can be cited by the Tribunal and asked to come in to give testimony about the marriage in question. The last page of this document is a checklist of what you are required to submit to the Tribunal.

If you would like assistance in completing this form, please speak with a Priest or Deacon at the Parish. Once it is complete, please mail it and the required documents to the Tribunal office. The Tribunal will then notify you of the next steps in the process. In order for the process to run smoothly, it is important that you keep us informed of any change in address for you, your former spouse, or your witnesses. Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Tribunal.

If, after receiving your Petition and documentation, it is discovered that you have a special case, which might be better addressed, by another type of process, you will be contacted by the Tribunal to explain the options available to you.

The Tribunal cannot guarantee the outcome of the case nor provide a timeframe for its completion; please do NOT set a date for a wedding until you have the final decree in hand from the Tribunal. It is important to note that due to the COVID crisis and personnel shortages, the process can take 2 years or, for difficult cases, possibly longer.

> Very Rev. Msgr. Robert J. Hospodar, J.C.L. Judicial Vicar

EXTRA FEES: Mailings to Europe, Asia, & Africa will be charged an additional postage fee.

PLEASE NOTE: The tribunal will not accept petitions with respondents or witnesses in China or Russia until further notice.

** PRINT packet: 1-sided only. Do NOT print 2-sided. (The back of each page must be blank.)

Preparing Your Petition

The "Petition" is at the end of this section. It contains basic information required by Canon Law. It contains a section in which you are asked to write a very brief description of why you think the marriage was not valid and binding from the beginning. There are a limited number of grounds or legal bases for considering the validity of marriage. The following descriptions of the most common of these grounds may help you to prepare your brief statement. The Tribunal is not concerned with pointing fingers or finding moral fault with either spouse, but with learning the truth of the marriage. Any basis or circumstance for a declaration of invalidity must have existed from the very beginning of the marriage, that is, on the wedding day (or the day of convalidation or "blessing").

Please indicate whether or not the following existed on the day of the wedding:

[Please be advised that the following are NOT grounds for invalidity: Immaturity, incompatibility, lack of communication, infirmity after the fact, infidelity, later onset addictions, wrong choice of spouse, or post-marital trauma (e.g., the death of a child). ☐ If at the time of your wedding you did not hold that your marriage would be an exclusive union... that is one or both of you considered the marriage "open" or considered it acceptable to have other sexual partners during your future marriage, you could write, "an intention against fidelity." If at the time of the wedding one or both of you decided to exclude the possibility of having children during the duration of your marriage, or if you and/or the other party mutually or unilaterally decided to postpone having children until some indeterminate time or condition was met, or if you always used some means of contraception to prevent pregnancy, you could write, "the exclusion of children." ☐ If there was a pre-marital pregnancy... If the fact or suspicion of a pre-marital pregnancy caused the decision to marry this might be a factor. Did you feel pressured to marry because of the pregnancy, whether it was internal pressure or pressure from someone else? If so, you could write, "pressure to marry because of pregnancy." If at the time of the wedding there were serious problems with addictions...If the problems affected one or both of you in your decision making ability, or in your ability to function normally, or if they prevented one or both of you from being able to fulfill the basic obligations of marriage, you could write, "alcohol (and/or drug) abuse which prevented fulfilling the basic obligations of marriage," or "alcohol (and/or drug) abuse which prevented sound decision-making at the time of marriage." It is important to state when the addiction started. Please note, the use of this ground on either party will require a psychological/psychiatric evaluation by a tribunal appointed doctor at your expense, to be paid directly to the doctor (approx. $600). ☐ If psychological/psychiatric illness affected the party(ies) or marriage... A person must be capable of living out the commitment of marriage, including being a spouse and a parent, even with illness. If serious psychiatric illness prevented either you or your former spouse from understanding or fulfilling the basic obligations of marriage, you could write, "serious psychiatric or psychological illness which prevented the fulfillment of the basic obligations of marriage." Please note, the use of this ground on either party will require a psychological/psychiatric evaluation by a tribunal appointed doctor at your expense, to be paid directly to the doctor (approx. $300-$450). Other medical proofs may also be necessary. ☐ If fraud led to the marriage... If you or your former spouse had been told a lie in order to convince you to marry, or if something important was intentionally concealed in order to get you to marry, you could write, "fraud intended to lead to marriage." ☐ If at the time of your marriage, you or your former spouse did not hold that your marriage was "until death"... If in fact you or your former spouse excluded from your marriage all probability of marital permanence, you can write. "exclusion of the permanence of marriage."

	sexuality and self-image can prevent or interfere with the marital relationship and marital intimacy. If this was a factor in the marriage, you could write, "inability to fulfill the obligations of a (husband/wife) because of homosexuality." It is important to include whether homosexual feelings or confusion existed prior to the marriage, how soon into the marriage this became a problem, and whether the marriage ended principally because of homosexuality.
☐ If yo	bu did not intend to marry at all Sometimes a couple will go through a legal or religious marriage ceremony for a reason connected with immigration, insurance, or finances, and not out of the idea of marriage itself. In other words, they were pretending to marry. If such was the case in this marriage, you could write, "simulation of marriage for reasons of (immigration/insurance/)."
☐ If or	he or both of you entered this marriage against your will If either spouse, or both, did not agree to marry freely but because of some force, or out of fear (even a deep-seated fear of displeasing someone important to you such as a parent or clergyman), you could write, "force (or fear) to enter marriage." This might apply also if the marriage was arranged (as happens in some cultures) and you or your spouse did not want to marry.
☐ Erro	the time of marriage, such that you thought you were marrying a different person, you could write, "error of person." If in choosing to marry your former spouse you were actually focused primarily on some quality that you thought the other had (i.e., she is a doctor, he is a vegetarian), but later discovered that he or she was not, and you or the Respondent desired that quality more than marriage itself, you could write, "error principally and directly intended," also indicating the quality about which you were in error.
☐ Con	ndition If you placed any condition on the marriage—either concerning the past, present or future, you could write, "past/present/future condition," also indicating what the condition concerned and whether or not the condition was actually fulfilled.

Hamasayyality is not a ground of invalidity in itself, but confusion aver

Witnesses

It is absolutely necessary to provide the names and complete addresses of several witnesses (preferably at least four) who can support the grounds of your case. The best witnesses are friends, co-workers, family members, roommates, or others who knew both you and the Respondent before and during the marriage. Please contact your witnesses personally and inform them that you will give their names and addresses to the Tribunal. If you do not contact them, they may be surprised and even angered when the Tribunal cites them. Their refusal to answer questions can seriously delay or affect the outcome of your case.

Please apprise the witnesses of the following:

- 1) They must appear in person to testify about their knowledge of the marriage
- 2) Their interview should preferably be on the same day as your own interview with the Judge. You are responsible for coordinating this with your witnesses.

Testimony is taken Monday - Friday during normal business hours in accordance with the judge's schedule.

Witnesses who do not live within the Archdiocese will be given the opportunity to provide testimony in the Tribunal of their local diocese. Neither "telephone testimony" nor written statements are permitted to take the place of oral testimony.

Testimony can be taken via Skype/ FaceTime/ WhatsApp/ Zoom. To do so, you must contact the Metropolitan Tribunal at tribunal@archny.org for procedures and rules to verify that you qualify.

-	No assurance of the outcome or the time it will take to complete the process can be given.
-	If there is a judgment granting the declaration of nullity, it may contain a clause delaying or restricting permission to remarry in the Church.
-	If the grounds on either myself or the respondent are psychological in nature and require a psychological/psychiatric evaluation, I am fully responsible for all fees charged by a tribunal appointed doctor. (approx. $700).
I hereb	by certify that:
-	I have contacted the witnesses whose names and addresses I have supplied, and they agree to participate.
