

“

I say the creed at Mass, but I don't actually understand every word.

What does living Catholic social teaching mean for today?

How did the early Church choose books for inclusion in the Bible?

Shed light on your faith through online courses!

Introducing Enlighten, from Fordham University & the Archdiocese of New York

Although we participate week after week, sometimes we don't realize the meaning and origins of what we say and do at Mass and how we are called to live as Catholics. Now, you can deepen your understanding through a joint program of the Archdiocese of New York and Fordham University's Graduate School of Religion and Religious Education.

Enlighten: Faith Education for Today's Catholic will expand your knowledge of our faith through online courses.

Program Basics

- Six courses, six weeks each
- Each week, coursework is delivered in small modules that can be completed at a time convenient for you
- Lectures are presented in a combination of video and audio format
- Readings and other resources are provided
- Participation in the program is a step toward certification for catechists and other lay leaders
- The program is open to all parishioners of the Archdiocese of New York

This program is for you if...

- You are interested in learning more about your faith
- You are involved in parish leadership or ministry
- You are a catechist or youth minister looking to satisfy certification requirements or simply renew your knowledge
