The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA) of 2017 was the most significant tax reform legislation in over 30 years! In addition, there have been hundreds of regulation and rule changes enacted by the IRS since the passage of the new tax law, and in 2020 the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA), and the Consolidated Appropriations Act 2021 (CAA 2021) all impact current and future year's tax returns.

There are many changes, including but not limited to:

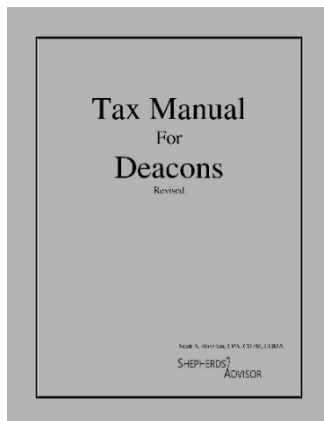

- The 2020 Form 1040 is modified and is again longer than the previous year
- Two of the three Schedules have been modified
- Schedule SE is modified with NO short form available; more calculations and lines to fill
- Federal Stimulus Payments and Rebates/Credits
- Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) Loans for individuals with Schedule C
- COVID-19 Sick Leave under FFCRA
- Standard Deductions have been increased
- An 'above the line' charitable deduction of up to $300 for those who do not Itemize
- Itemizers can deduct up to 100% of earnings
- Itemized Deductions have changed and some have new limits

Continued

- New tax brackets at the lower tax rates have been updated for inflation with many other updated figures.
- Option for State Sales Tax deduction
- reimbursed employee expenses have been eliminated as deductions through 2025
- The Qualified Business Income Deduction (Pass Through) requires Form 8995.
- Deduction for clergy teacher expenses
