TO: Pastors, Administrators, and Parish Leaders
FROM: Theodore J. Musco, Director
RE: Archdiocese of New York Family Life Conference 2023
DATE: January 15, 2023

---

The staff of the Office of Family Life and I invite all clergy, men and woman religious, laity in parish leadership positions, coordinators of any aspect of family life, and parishioners to join us for the first annual Archdiocese of New York Family Life Conference *Behold, I make All Things New to be held on Saturday, March 25, 2023, from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm at Cathedral High School in Manhattan. The attached flyer contains complete details regarding the plan for the day as well as registration information. Please take very opportunity to encourage your parishioners and staff to attend this conference to learn more about opportunities to help the parish and individuals improve family life. Those who attend this conference will be able to take back to their parish valuable resources and information regarding further formation and education. We wish to assist the family and the parish in whatever ways possible.

For inclusion in your parish bulletin and on your parish website, please use or adapt the following:
