

News From The Sheen Center – The Arts Center of the Archdiocese of New York

The spring season is in full swing at The Sheen Center! Click here to view all our events including Broadway Spirit: Songs of Faith, Hope & Inspiration (April 22), unique concert designed just for The Sheen Center for the Easter Season, featuring veteran and up-and-coming Broadway vocalists. And, on April 29, Vy Higgenson’s “Sing Harlem Choir” comes to The Sheen with its unique blend of Gospel and R&B.

As always – The Sheen Center offers clergy, Religious, and lay Archdiocesan employees 15% off ticket prices to most events, and discounts for groups of 10 or more. To learn more, please email pattymacias@sheencenter.org.

In our gallery this month: Saved By Beauty: Dostoevsky in New York, an exhibit that spans two floors and gives visual expression to characters and existential and moral themes from Dostoevsky’s novels through a variety of painting styles by seven artists including Bishop Maxim of the Western American Diocese of the Serbian Orthodox Church.

On May 4, 2022 The Sheen Center will launch, Faith-The Competitive Edge, a series inspired by the Vatican’s Sport at the Service of Humanity movement, hosted by US Olympian and sports broadcaster Leslie Maxie. The first guest for this series is NHL All-Star, Pat LaFontaine. Please be sure to share this with your colleagues in CYO and young adult ministry. May also includes two Theater Works productions that are perfect for families with young children – Charlotte’s Web on May 7 and The Pout-Pout Fish on May 14.

If you would like a representative of The Sheen Center to speak at your parish about programming and group discounts, please let us know! We would be happy to visit.
