CHARITY IN ACTION

Catholic Charities Featured Stories

‘I Just Want a Better Life' The New York Times Neediest Cases Fund

Despite Nishi Akter facing many struggles after coming to the US from Bangladesh, she excelled in school and received a financial package to attend Fordham University. Still she needed help and connected with Abraham House, an affiliate agency of Catholic Charities. Read her story via The New York Times' Neediest Cases Fund.

Read More

Bigs & Littles NYC makes mentoring impact with Caring Through COVID

Of the 4,200 children who lost a parent to the pandemic in New York State, 57 percent hail from the Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens, the boroughs where most of Bigs and Littles NYC mentoring takes place. Here's how they've been helping these children through their mentoring program.

Read More

Ignacia Gonzalez: Went on hunger strike for workers rights in the Excluded Workers Fund

The Catholic Charities Community Services Yonkers office Obreros Unidos and Mujeres en Accion groups (the Day Laborer Program and the women's program) fought for The Extended Workers Fund for months, participating in marches, protests, and even a hunger strike and they are now the recipients of the fund they fought so hard to pass. Ignacia Gonzalez, a Mujeres en Accion member, and resident of Yonkers for over 18 years was one of those hunger strikers.

Read More

Kristen Sisko, volunteer Pro Bono Project advocate helps immigrants at Catholic Charities New York

Throughout the month of October, Catholic Charities is celebrating the volunteers and clients of our Pro Bono Project in anticipation of National Pro Bono Week coming up October 24-30, 2021. Today, we highlight Pro Bono Volunteer Advocate Kristen Sisko of Meyner and Landis LLP.

Read More

Supporting Afghans after evacuation: The New York Times Neediest Cases Fund

Batol Khan left Afghanistan 6 years ago and waited to be reunited with her mother and sister. After they fled the country after the Taliban took over, Catholic Charities helped Ms. Khan's mother and sister resettle in Brooklyn with her. Read their story via The New York Times Neediest Cases Fund.

Read More

CATHOLIC CHARITIES
COMMUNITY SERVICES

Providing Help. Creating Hope.

IDA RELIEF PROGRAM FOR EXCLUDED NEW YORKERS

Hurt by the Remnants of Hurricane Ida?

Call Today: (347) 450-8415

The Ida Relief Fund for Excluded New Yorkers is intended for those who are not eligible for FEMA's program due to immigration status. Financial assistance for the following items may be provided:

- Home repairs if you own the home.
- Temporary lodging and rental assistance if displaced.
- Assistance with losses to personal property or a vehicle.
- Funeral, medical, dental expenses.
- Clean and removal assistance.
- Critical needs assistance.
- Increased childcare expenses.
- Moving and storage expenses.

If you had damages due to the Remnants of Hurricane Ida, Catholic Charities Community Services, Archdiocese of New York can:

- Help you fill out and submit your initial application.
- Meet with you to verify your damages.
- Collect and/or help you obtain supporting documentation.
- Submit claims for financial assistance.
- Provide you with information and referrals for your continued needs.

The Ida Relief Fund for Excluded New Yorkers is operated by Catholic Charities Community Services, Archdiocese of New York under the auspices of, and funded by, the New York State Office of New Americans (ONA).

CATHOLIC CHARITIES
COMMUNITY SERVICES

Providing Help. Creating Hope.

PROGRAMA DE AYUDA POR EL HURACÁN IDA PARA NEOYORQUINOS EXCLUIDOS

¿Afectado por los estragos del huracán Ida?

Llame hoy: (347) 450-8415

El Fondo de Ayuda por el Huracán Ida para Neoyorquinos Excluidos está destinado a aquellos que no son elegibles para el programa de asistencia de FEMA debido a su estatus migratorio. A través del fondo se puede proporcionar asistencia financiera para lo siguiente:

- Reparaciones en el hogar si usted es dueño de la casa.
- Asistencia temporal para alojamiento y alquiler en caso de haber sido desplazado.
- Asistencia con pérdidas de propiedad personal o un vehículo.
- Gastos funerarios, médicos y dentales.
- Asistencia de limpieza y remoción de escombros.
- Asistencia para necesidades críticas.
- Aumento en los gastos de cuidado infantil.
- Gastos de mudanza y almacenamiento.

Si sufrió daños debido a los estragos que dejo el huracán Ida, Servicios Comunitarios de Caridades Católicas de la Arquidiócesis de Nueva York puede:

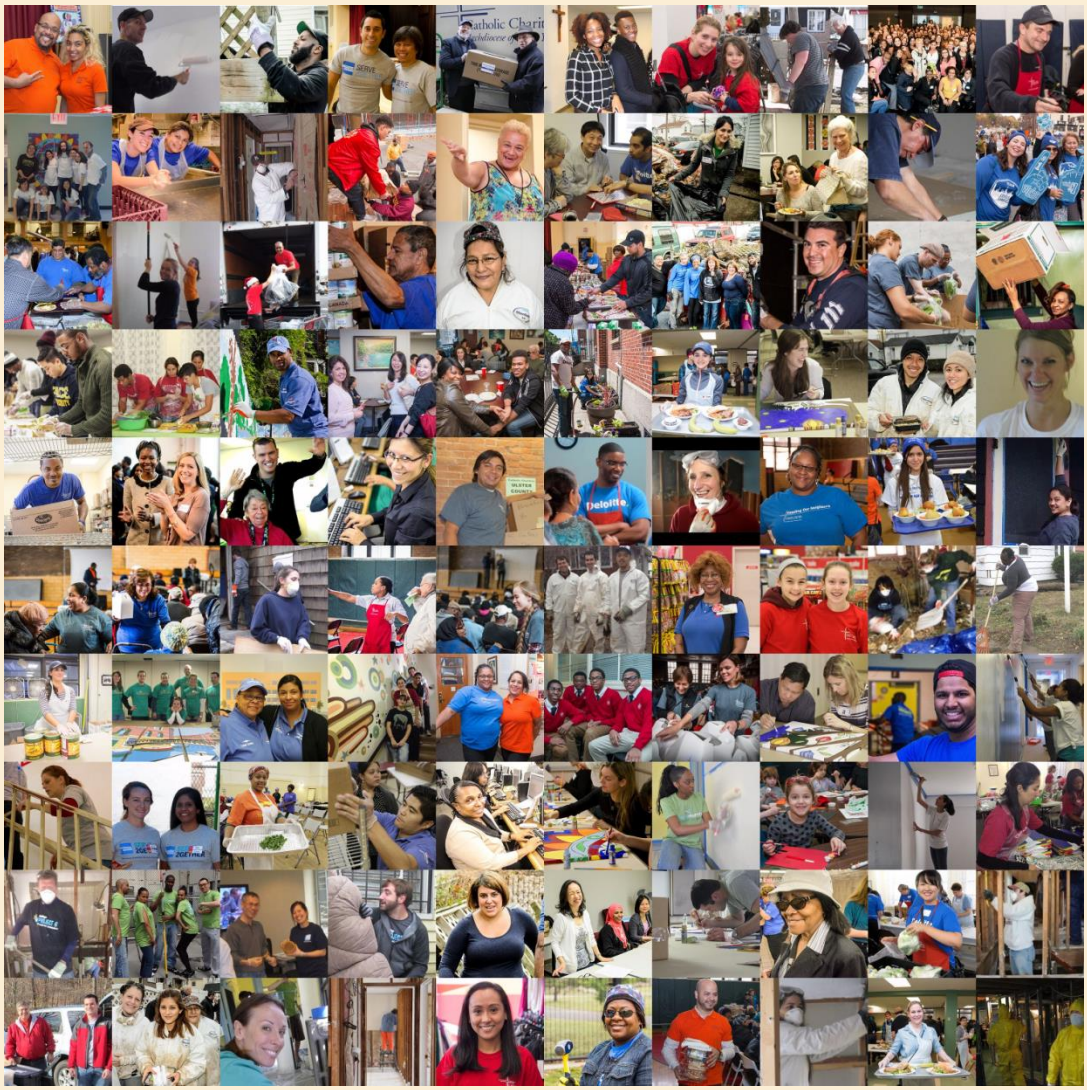
- Ayudarle a completar y enviar su solicitud inicial de asistencia.
- Reunirse con usted para verificar sus daños.
- Recopilar y/o ayudarlo a obtener documentación que respalde su solicitud.
- Presentar reclamos de asistencia financiera.
- Brindarle información y referidos para sus necesidades que siguen presentes.

El Fondo de Ayuda por el Huracán Ida para Neoyorquinos Excluidos es operado por Servicios Comunitarios de Caridades Católicas de la Arquidiócesis de Nueva York con el auspicio y financiamiento de la Oficina para Nuevos Americanos del Estado de Nueva York (ONA).

CATHOLIC CHARITIES
ARCHDIOCESE OF NEW YORK

PROVIDING HELP CREATING HOPE

100+ YEARS



catholiccharitiesny.org

@CatholicCharitiesNY

@CathCharitiesNY

@catholiccharitiesny

@catholiccharitiesofny

Catholic Charities, Archdiocese of New York
1011 First Avenue, 11th Floor
New York, NY 10022
Toll Free Help Line (888) 744-7900
©2021 Catholic Charities
All rights reserved