Make Sunday Come Alive All Week!

The Department of Youth Faith Formation wants to support you and your whole family during this difficult time in our world. Each week we will be sending out this resource which can help you reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings with your entire family.

Here are some ideas on how to use this resource:

- Consider reading one of the mass readings each evening.
- Do the discussion of the Gospel questions after dinner one night.
- Watch the video on a different night. Formed.org is graciously offering free access to our Archdiocese during this time. If you do not already have access, you can sign up here.
- Pray the prayer each evening.

Discuss
Read the Gospel and then discuss as a family:
1. What happened in this reading?
2. Is there anything we believe without seeing?
3. Is Thomas’s doubt reasonable—does it make sense?
4. How does Jesus respond to Thomas?
5. Where do you Jesus working in our world without seeing him physically?

In April 2000, St. Pope John Paul II canonize St. Faustina Kowalska and designated the first Sunday after Easter to be the Divine Mercy Sunday. “Jesus said to St. Faustina one day: ‘Humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy.’ Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity.”

Watch
For families with young children, watch a cartoon about the Second Sunday of Easter
For families with older children, Jeff Cavins explains Divine Mercy Sunday.

Pray
Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet.
You can download a copy of the chaplet here or pray it in song with Steve Angrisano here.

Do
The image of the Divine Mercy shows two rays of light, red and white, streaming from the pierced side of Jesus. Often it has the words, “Jesus, I trust in you.” This week, make your own image of the Divine Mercy. Be creative, draw, color, do a mosaic, make it realistic or abstract. Then, each night in your prayer, ask God to increase your ability to trust in Him.
