Saint Frances Cabrini

Known as “Mother Cabrini,” she was the first American citizen to be named a saint. Originally from Northern Italy, she followed her calling to humbly serve through care and education to New York City, establishing 67 hospitals, orphanages, and schools in a span of 34 years. She is called the “Patroness of Immigrants.” The Shrine of St. Frances Cabrini houses the remains of Mother Cabrini, the patron saint of immigrants.
