Presenter:

ELIZABETH WHITE

Director, Evangelization and
Missionary Discipleship,
Archdiocese of Chicago

Elizabeth J. White, Presenter

Beth is an innovative, person-centered leader who has spent most of her career creating and developing tools and processes to advance the mission of the organizations she has served. A storyteller at heart, Beth loves to learn and explore all types of resources and listen to other people's stories.

For seven years, Beth has served the Archdiocese of Chicago as their Director of the Office for Evangelization and Missionary Discipleship. She and her team directly help pastors and lay leaders to bring about renewal in their parishes by focusing on creating communities of belonging where all are welcomed and encouraged to grow in their relationship with Jesus and His Church.

Beth previously served as the Vice President of Advancement at the first Cristo Rey Jesuit High School located in Chicago where she was responsible for fundraising, strategic planning, and communications. Prior to her time at Cristo Rey, Beth served in various roles in Catholic organizations, mostly focused in the area of marketing and communications.

Beth has a Master of Arts in Theology from St. Meinrad School of Theology in St. Meinrad, Indiana. She is a parishioner at St. Gerald Parish in Oak Lawn where she resides. Once an empty-nester, her young adult daughter, Megan, returned home while finishing her Master's degree.
