

SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY

THE WEEKEND OF MARCH 11 AND 12, 2023

SAVE THE DATE

On March 11-12, 2023, the Archdiocese of New York will celebrate Safe Haven Sunday. Safe Haven Sunday is an annual weekend set aside by dioceses and parishes to directly address the harms of pornography.

Throughout the country, arch/dioceses and parishes are able to provide teaching and resources that will support and protect individuals, marriages and families in making all homes a safe haven. This awareness day will give us an opportunity to address the harmfulness of pornography in marriages, families, and culture as a whole, while providing helpful resources to both individuals and families.

COVENANT EYES

Our partners at Covenant Eyes will provide us with the necessary resources. This informational video further explains the purpose of Safe Haven Sunday: www.covenanteyes.com/safe-haven-introduction.

The free parish implementation resources will be provided to you as we get closer to date. If your parish would like to purchase the Year 1 primary educational resource to be distributed to parishioners on Safe Haven Sunday – Covenant Eyes' book, Equipped: Smart Catholic Parenting in a Sexualized Culture. You can do so by visiting: <https://store.covenanteyes.com/collections/catholic-items/products/equipped-smart-catholic-parenting-in-a-sexualized-culture>.

For more information or to register your parish, please contact Theodore J. Musco, Director of the Office of Family Life at Theodore.Musco@archny.org. Thank you!
