

DEVELOPMENT OFFICE ARCHDIOCESE OF NEW YORK

Dear Pastors,

On March 17, Catholics worldwide, New Yorkers, and the Archdiocese of New York community will celebrate the feast of St. Patrick. We joyfully anticipate gathering together again for morning Mass at the Cathedral and Fifth Avenue parade viewing.

In honor of St. Patrick's Day, I'm pleased to share updates from the St. Patrick's Cathedral Landmark Restoration, an extraordinary undertaking to preserve "America's parish church" for generations to come. Thanks to the altruism of thousands of benefactors – including individual donors, corporations, foundations, and clergy – we have raised a phenomenal $183,000,000+. We are working diligently to secure the final $25,000,000 to complete the project expenses.

One of the most meaningful aspects of the Landmark Restoration campaign has been our naming opportunities to commemorate a loved one, celebrate a family's commitment to architectural preservation, or exhibit the shared values of a corporation or foundation's mission to preserve the planet by supporting our geothermal plant.

In gratitude for your remarkable role in bringing Christ's love to your parishes through the sacraments, ministry and your leadership, Cardinal Dolan has welcomed a special opportunity for fellow clergy to take a St. Patrick's Cathedral pew naming opportunity at a reduced donation level of $25,000 over 1 – 10 years. For reference, pew naming opportunities are offered to supporters who donate $250,000 - $100,000.

Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions (Kathleen.McGowan@archny.org or 646.794.2294). I would be delighted to catch up with you and share more about the opportunity. Enclosed is a pew naming opportunity pledge form for clergy as well as our general pew naming opportunity information if you know of anyone who might be interested in supporting the cathedral in such a meaningful way.

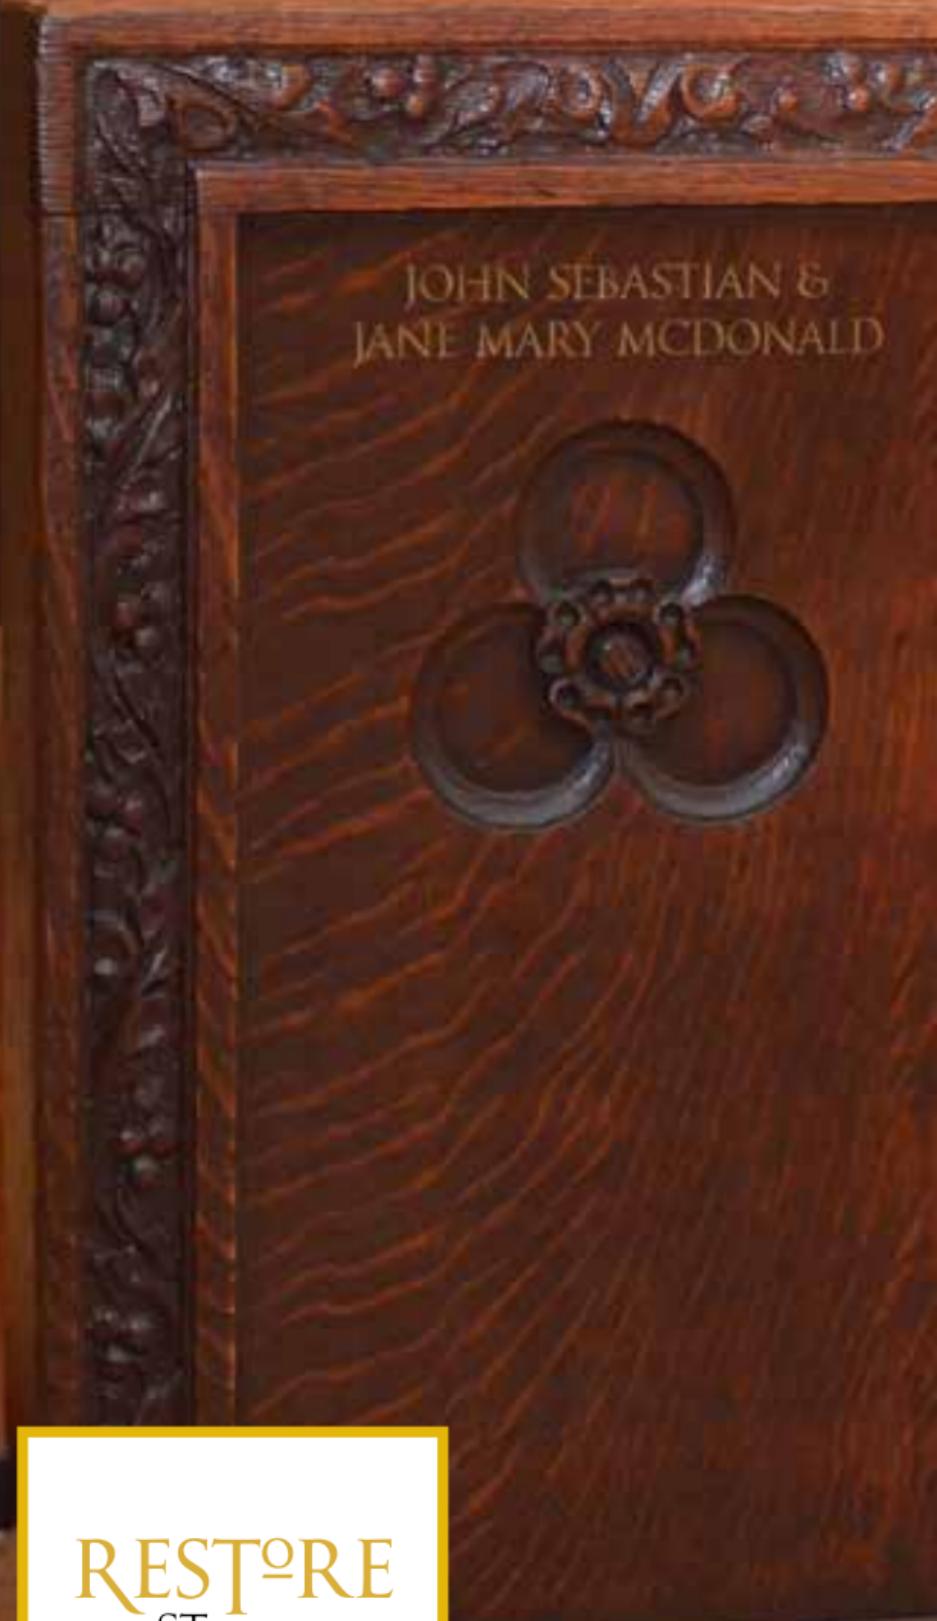

Thank you,
Kate

ST. PATRICK'S HISTORIC PEW NAMING OPPORTUNITIES

The pews at St. Patrick's Cathedral are true witnesses to history. Heads of state, royalty, politicians, and public figures are seated in them at Christmas, St. Patrick's Day, and Easter Masses as well as for Papal visits and Archbishop installations. The pews date back to 1929 and the intricate carved pattern on each oak pew matches the beauty of the carvings on the gallery organ.

CENTER AISLE PEWS: $250,000

NORTH AND SOUTH AISLES: $150,000

NORTH AND SOUTH CHAPEL AISLES: $100,000

Be a part of our history by joining us in preserving St. Patrick's Cathedral, a treasured landmark, for generations to come. If you are interested in a pew naming opportunity or learn more about our efforts on behalf of St. Patrick's Cathedral, please contact:
