Love & Responsibility: Winter

Thursday, February 20, 7:30 p.m.

Church of the Immaculate Conception, 414 E. 14th Street, New York, NY 10009

Love and Responsibility returns for a bonus Winter addition. Helen Alvaré, law professor and Catholic author, will be our guest speaker. You don't want to miss this!

Helen Alvaré is a Professor of Law at Antonin Scalia Law School, George Mason University, where she teaches Family Law, Law and Religion, and Property Law. She publishes on matters concerning marriage, parenting, non-marital households, and the First Amendment religion clauses. She cooperates with the Permanent Observer Mission of the Holy See to the United Nations as a speaker and a delegate to various United Nations conferences concerning women and the family. In addition to her books, and her publications in law reviews and other academic journals, Professor Alvaré publishes regularly in news outlets including the New York Times, the Washington Post, the Huffington Post, and CNN.com.

This event is free and open to the public. Bring your friends! There will be wine served, so make sure to bring your ID if you would like a glass!
